

INSTRUCTIONS MANUAL

How to navigate in the PREZI document

Click here to open the PREZI

Introduction

The PREZI document is an interactive presentation and these instructions will help you navigate through it. To open this presentation you will need an internet connection.

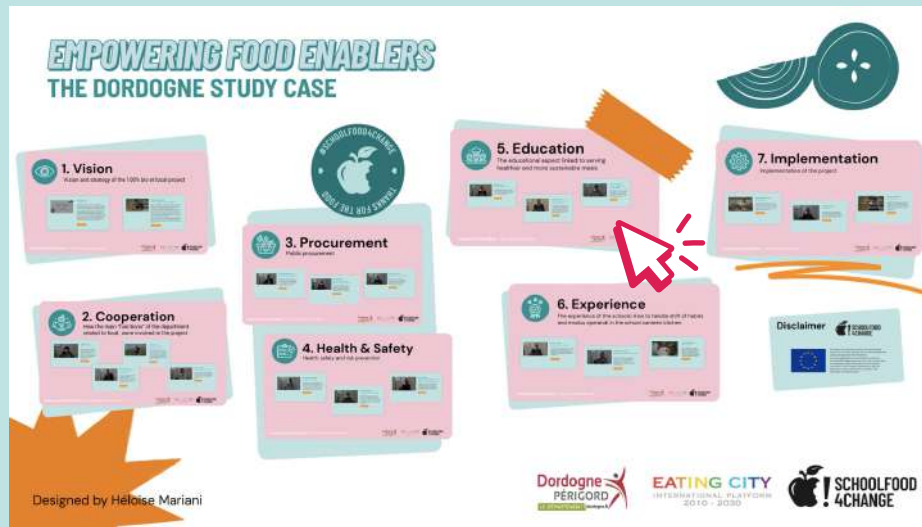

1. Open the link

2. Click on « Present »

3. Main page: Choose a theme

Click on any of the themes in the pink boxes.

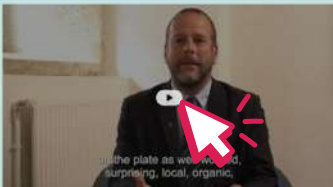

4. Choose a person

Same thing here, click on any of the blue boxes you which corresponds to an interview.

5. Watch the video and read the transcription

Philippe Vuillet
General secretary of the
DSEN in Dordogne

Philippe Vuillet, General Secretary of the DSDEN, discusses the project's benefits, including enhancing student health, promoting responsible consumption, and improving civic education. The project fosters pride and ethical awareness among students and staff.

Read more!

Philippe Vuillet
General secretary of the
DSEN in Dordogne

Philippe Vuillet, General Secretary of the DSDEN, discusses the project's benefits, including enhancing student health, promoting responsible consumption, and improving civic education. The project fosters pride and ethical awareness among students and staff.

Read more!

6. Navigate between the themes and people

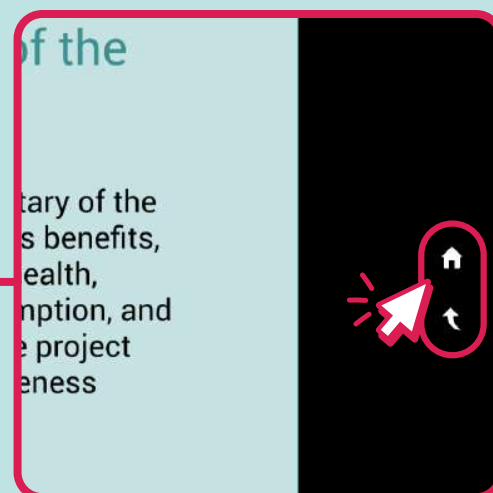

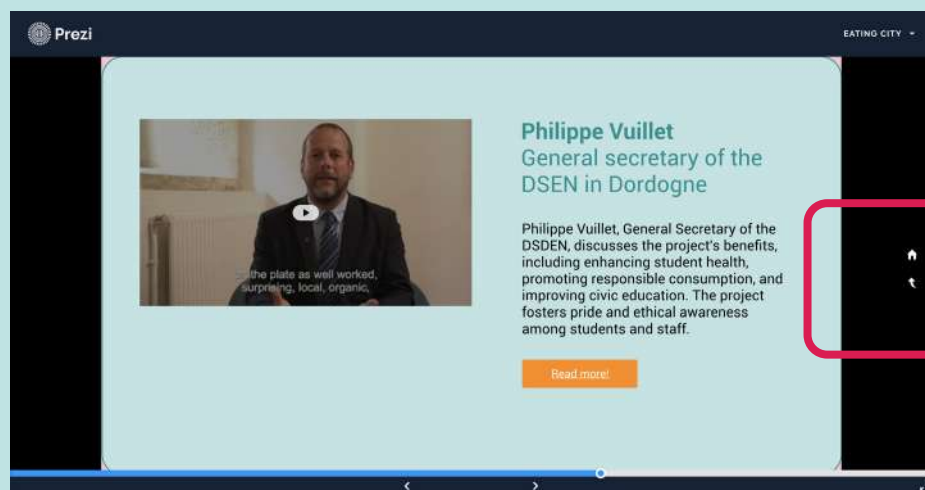

Navigate either by using the arrows from the presentation or the ones on your keyboard.

Philippe Vuillet, General Secretary of the DSDEN, discusses the project's benefits, including enhancing student health, promoting responsible consumption, and improving civic education. The project fosters pride and ethical awareness among students and staff.

Read more!

7. Go back to the main page

To go back to the main page, you can click on the arrow or the little house.

For any questions or if you notice a problem contact info@eatingcity.org